

Program

Monday May 5

Visits at STFI, forest operations and the Hallsta Paper Mill

Tuesday May 6

Seminar at STFI, Drottning Kristinas väg 61

09.00	Welcome to STFI	Thomas Johannesson, STFI
09.05	The industry and customer perspective on wood and fiber utilization	Carl Sundberg, Holmen Paper
09.30	The EuroFiber project – objectives, layout and general results	Sven-Olof Lundqvist, STFI
10.00	Samples and data on wood and fiber properties – strategies and methods	Lars Olsson, STFI
10.30	Differences in wood and fiber properties – regions, stands, trees and parts of trees. Models	Örjan Hedenberg, STFI
11.00	Break
11.15	Laboratory refining of wood with different properties – methods and results	Michaël Lecourt, AFOCEL
11.45	Pilot plant refining of wood with different properties – methods and results	Peter Bräuer, Andritz
12.15	Lunch
13.15	Mill trials, validation of lab and pilot plant results. Possible applications
	Introduction	Per Engstrand, Holmen Paper
	• Hallsta Paper Mill, Sweden	Erik Persson, Holmen Paper
	• Corbehem Mill, France	Jean Claude Cleuet, Stora Enso
	• Golbey Mill, France	Guri Fuglem, Norske Skog
	• Follum Mill, Norway	Guri Fuglem, Norske Skog
	Summary and discussion	Per Engstrand, Holmen Paper
14.45	Coffee
15.00	Tools and visions
	• Process applications	Peter Bräuer, Andritz
	• Forestry applications	Lars Wilhelmsson, SkogForsk
	• Tools for forest and mill integration	Sven-Olof Lundqvist, STFI
16.00	Discussion and conclusions	Chairman: Per Engstrand, Holmen Paper